

A CALUMET HOTEL
GOES UP IN SMOKE

COMMERCIAL HOUSE WAS DESTROYED THIS MORNING.

All the inmates escape, and the loss is about $15,000, partially insured.—Property valued at $620,000 destroyed by flames at Chicago—Other fires.

Colame, Wis., Nov. 22.—[Special].—The Commercial hotel, on Fifth street, burned early this morning. The inmates all escaped. The loss will be about $15,000 with an insurance of $5,000.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—The Excelsior building, at Canal and Jackson streets, and an eight-story brick structure immediately adjoining it at Nos. 171 and 173 South Canal street, were destroyed by fire between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Not less than thirteen valuable manufacturing plants belonging to various firms and located in the two buildings were lost, including those of the Shober & Carqueville Lithographing Company, the Charles Emerich Feather Company, and the large establishment of Strouss, Eisendrath & Drom, and others equally well known. The total loss is not less than $620,000. The fire was a hard one to subdue, and attended with no little danger.

The escape of several hundred girls from the Strouss, Eisendrath & Drom factory was made possible by coolness and decision, but several of these suffered from fright and sustained slight bruises. Before the fight with the fire was ended Chief Swenick had exhausted the regular calls for engines and had to specially summon twenty more.

The fire started in the rear part of the fourth floor of the Excelsior building, occupied by Charles Emerich & Co., dealers in feathers. A small blaze was seen issuing from the windows of the renovating room, and the men employed there attempted to extinguish it by pouring water on it. The spread of the flames was remarkable, and before the alarm had been spread through the building a good-sized blaze was developed. It spread quickly to every portion of the large room, and the employees barely had time to gather their own belongings and reach the street.

The cause of the fire, as given by employees on the fourth floor, was that an explosion of dust occurred in the renovating room. An air shaft in the rear of the building helped the spread of the fire to the three floors above, and before the first detachment of the fire department had arrived the fire was raging in the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh floors.

On the sixth floor serious loss of life was narrowly averted by the presence of mind of several young women and men. That floor was occupied by Strouss, Eisendrath & Drom, shirt manufacturers. Over 400 girls were employed on this floor, and while the flames were burning below them for a space of several minutes they remained at their work, unconscious of the danger. Before they were made aware of the fact that a fire was in progress smoke commenced to pour into the main room where they were working at their sewing machines. The cry of fire was raised and confusion followed on all sides. A rush was made for the cloakrooms, and many of the women were badly crushed, but not seriously injured. A panic followed the first alarm, and but few were able to get their wraps. Three elevators in this portion of the building were running, and the frightened seamstresses crowded and pushed to gain entrance into the cars. Those who were brushed aside took to the stairways and found a way to the street in this way. Officers Brennan and Maloney of the Desplaines street police station were standing at the corner of Jackson and Canal streets. They heard the cry of fire from people in the building and hastened to the fire alarm box and turned in the alarm. They then ran into the building and rendered valuable assistance in getting the frightened girls from the building.

An exciting scene moved the crowd at one time. Four firemen from engine company No. 17 were standing on the landing of the fire escape at the fourth floor directing a stream into the windows at that floor. They were unconscious of the fact that the fire was nearing them. The shouts from their superiors and the cries of warning by the spectators were not heard by them. Bricks and hot pieces of cornice work fell in every direction, and many times narrowly missed the four on the fire-escape. The heat was intense. They finally saw the danger that threatened them. They dropped their lead of hose into the street and started to climb down the fire escape. The iron supporters and rungs were burning hot, and two streams from below were thrown upon the men and in this way they descended to the street in safety. They reached the ground just in time, for the Canal street wall was seen to tremble. The firemen were called away and the two fire engines stationed there were pulled to a safe place. This was accomplished just as the huge mass of wall fell to the street.

The fire has probably thrown out of employment 1,000 girls, boys and men. In the Banner Waist company's factory upward of 500 girls, who operated sewing machines, did cutting, and sewed by hand, are now without positions. The Lloyd company employed 50 machine makers, the Shober & Carqueville Lithographing company, 100 lithographers and printers; the Emerich company, where the fire started, 25 workers in feathers and pillow-makers. Other factories in the building had from twenty to fifty men and boys, who will now have to seek work elsewhere.

Threaten to Lynch a Firebug. Geneva, Ind., Nov. 22.—Ten business houses and one dwelling were burned here yesterday. Oliver Martin is in jail charged with having caused the fire, and the people threaten to lynch him. The loss will amount to $25,000, with but a small per cent of insurance. This is the fifth large fire here within three months, one alone amounting to over $100,000 loss. The evidence against Martin is very strong and the citizens of the town and county are furious.

Block Burned at Danbury, Conn. Danbury, Conn., Nov. 22.—Hawley's block, on Main and Keeler streets, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The tenants had narrow escapes from death. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

IT WAS A TRICK OF THE SULTAN'S

Turkey Ruler Has Broken Faith with the Powers—Massacres Feared. Constantinople, Nov. 22.—Matters do not look as bright here as they did yesterday. The professed determination of the sultan to act energetically in suppressing the disorders in Asia Minor had a decidedly good effect here and elsewhere, and the troubles which threatened to cause the disruption of the Turkish government were looked upon as almost ended. But a further jarring has occurred, and it is once more Bahri Pasha who is the disturbing element. This notorious official made himself so conspicuous by his cruelty to Armenians and maladministration of his district when Governor of Van that the British ambassador, Sir Philip Currie, insisted upon his removal. After considerable correspondence on the subject, and plain evidence of the pasha's unfitness for his position having been furnished to the sultan, the latter removed the pasha. Bahri, however, brought the strongest influence to bear upon Abdul Hamid, protested his innocence of the charges brought against him, claimed that his removal was brought about by the intrigues of the Armenians and eventually he was not only forgiven, but was decorated with the Order of the Osmanieh and complimented upon his efforts to suppress disorder.

Soon afterward it was rumored that Bahri Pasha was to be appointed to command the large force of Turkish troops being concentrated at Marash for a movement upon Zeitoun, which is held by the Armenians, who had captured the Turkish garrison, consisting of about four hundred men. This report raised such a storm of indignation in diplomatic and other circles here that the plan was abandoned, if, indeed, it had been formed.

Now, however, the storm has burst again, for Bahri Pasha has been appointed military commander of the Aleppo district. The bad impression which this has produced can hardly be exaggerated, for the diplomats feel that it will be almost impossible to prevent him from pursuing the same tactics at Aleppo as he did at Van. Upon receiving the news of Bahri Pasha's appointment to the military command of Aleppo the representatives of the powers held a meeting and joined in a note to the Turkish government saying that they cannot answer for the consequences which might ensue should the Armenians of Zeitoun be massacred after their surrender, which the Armenian patriarch, at the instance of the representatives of the powers, is endeavoring to bring about in order to prevent further bloodshed. A dispatch received here from Aleppo says that the greatest alarm still prevails there.

Hurried and frequent councils of the ministers are being held at the palace and some plain language is said to have been used by the sultan. That a sweeping rout of the present cabinet is contemplated nobody doubts; indeed, people are astonished that it did not take place when the sultan underwent his change of mind as a result of the assembling of the foreign fleets.

The British fleet is still at Salonica, and the French and Italian fleets are at Smyrna, about 200 miles from Salonica. Smyrna and Salonica, however, are about an equal distance from the entrance to the Dardanelles.

The United States minister, Alexander W. Terrell, at the request of the American missionaries at Kharput, has prevailed upon the Turkish government to telegraph orders to the Turkish commander there to furnish the missionaries with an escort of troops to conduct them to the nearest point on the Black sea coast, possibly Trebizond, in order that they may embark for this city. Mr. Terrell has also advised the missionaries in other disturbed districts to retire from their posts for a time so that their presence may not be made the excuse for further disorder. It is believed that this suggestion will be adopted in several cases at least.

A mob of 200 masked men gathered three miles from the jail and marched in fours to the prison. A demand was made on Jailer Langtry to "Open up." This he refused to do and the door was broken open with a sledge hammer. When the mob was on the inside the jailer was forced to give up his keys. REPUBLICANS MEET
AT THE CREAM CITY

BIG GATHERING OF POLITICIANS AT MILWAUKEE.

Executive Committee of the League of Republican Clubs Held at the Hotel Pfister—Want the National Convention Next Year—Citizens' Committee Named to Make Plans.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 22.—Republican politicians from all parts of Wisconsin were in Milwaukee yesterday. The magnet that attracted them was the meeting of the executive committee of the Wisconsin League of Republican Clubs. Nothing of practical importance was done, the proceedings being devoted to steps calculated to get Milwaukeeans interested in the convention here next year of the National League of Republican Clubs. A resolution was adopted providing for the appointment of five republicans, who shall call a meeting of citizens at which the arrangements are to be made.

M. J. Dowling of Chicago, secretary of the National League, made an address, in which he said 25,000 republicans and the national nominees would come to Milwaukee next summer. Pennsylvania alone would send 1,000, and other states would be represented by large delegations. There being nothing else to do, the conference then came to an end.

Arriving at Terre Haute, he will address a big meeting in the armory, his subject being on the labor question. After that Mr. Debs will spend six weeks at the headquarters of the American Railway union, getting things in shape.

There have been requests from all the big cities for addresses by him, but he will deliver none before Jan. 8, for which date he has accepted an invitation to speak in Milwaukee.

Lieutenant Milroy, who has charge, says that this battery, which defends the chief harbor of the Pacific coast, is the largest in the world. There is another located at Sandy Hook, near the New York harbor, but it contains only one eight and two fifteen inch guns. During the first week of December an official test will be made of the guns before General Graham and all the officers stationed at the Presidio and the neighboring military posts. KNIGHTS OF LABOR QUARREL.
Press Committee of the Assembly Resigns in a Body.

Washington, Nov. 22.—In the Knights of Labor general assembly yesterday an effort was made to discover how the news of the row which led to General Master Workman Sovereign's resignation Wednesday reached the public, and the criminalizations and recriminations became so bitter that the press committee of the assembly resigned in a body. A boycott of the establishment of Wasmaker & Brown and John Wasmaker of Philadelphia was ordered upon the presentation that those companies compelled 1,600 women and girls employed by them to become members of a beneficial association, in which the members had no control. A boycott asked by six separate assemblies was indorsed against the beer output of breweries controlled by English syndicates in St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Omaha and Philadelphia, and also against breweries which employ non-union men. Some other boycotts were also ordered.

The assembly elected J. A. Wright of Philadelphia as past general master workman. This office would have been held by Mr. Powderly had he not been under suspension. The question of boycotting the Lorillard Tobacco company will be decided today. It is probable that the general assembly will complete its labors today. The next place of meeting will be either Rochester, N. Y., or Hot Springs, Ark.

Convention at Atlanta to Form an Independent Organization.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 22.—Representatives of the various Baptist Young People's Unions of the southern states, to a total of seven hundred, met yesterday. Dr. Gray of this city is president of a committee of leading southern Baptists appointed at a meeting recently held in Macon, Ga., looking to a general southern convention of Baptist Young People's Unions, for the purpose of organizing a southern association of these unions distinct from the Young People's Baptist Union of America. At the last meeting of the latter organization, held in Washington in May, this question came up, but the convention did not look with favor upon the movement. It was then determined by the southern unions to take independent action and to form an organization which should act as an auxiliary to the southern Baptist convention. The new association will have a membership of 25,000.

WILL LEAVE FOR CONGRESS.

Secretary Carlisle Will Make No Campaign Recommendations.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Secretary Carlisle's speech before the Chamber of Commerce banquet in New York pointed out the defects in the currency system, but made no recommendations. It is learned that this speech was an accurate forecast of the secretary's forthcoming annual report, upon which he is expending most of his time at present. Rumors that Mr. Carlisle would recommend legislation for the retirement of greenbacks and suggest a substitute seem to have been wide of the mark. It is his present intention to present the facts concerning the treasury situation to congress and let that body devise its own remedy.

News from County Villages.

Milton, Nov. 22.—The camp fire of A. D. Hamilton Post Tuesday evening was the most successful in the history of the post. The Seventh Day Baptist church was filled with an appreciative and well pleased audience and representatives from Edgerton, Albion, Lima and other places were present. Prior to the literary exercises the Women's Relief Corps served supper in G. A. R. hall. Governor Upham was the first speaker and he made a very favorable impression, his remarks being interrupted with frequent and hearty applause. He was followed by Col. E. B. Gray, whose sallies of wit and humorous anecdotes were received with hearty laughter. Department Commander Hoard and Assistant Adjutant General Talmage were late in arriving, being delayed by a freight train. Ex-Governor Hoard made the address of the evening. It was a polished, thoughtful effort and held the close attention of the large audience from beginning to end. Adjutant Talmage was brief in his remarks. The exercises were interspersed with a pleasing recitation by Miss Retta Crouch and vocal numbers by the ladies quartette, composed of Misses Jordan, Coon, Davis and Mrs. Sayre and the college Glee club led by Mr. George Sayre. Surgeon General Whiting of Janesville was unable to be present, which was a disappointment to many. The receipts of the entertainment were something over $40 which will be used in replenishing the relief fund of the Post. The first lecture in the Du Lac Grange course will be given by Professor Meyer at college chapel Tuesday evening. His subject is "The Industrial Revolution." VERY COLD AT EMERALD GROVE

Ten Below Zero on Thursday Morning—Party at E. C. Ransom's
Emerald Grove, Nov. 22.—It was ten degrees below zero on the morning of the 21st and with about six inches of snow maybe it don't look and feel like winter. On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Edgar C. Ransom royally entertained some fifty or more of their many friends at their spacious home near here. The evening, and far into the night was given to games, cinch and dancing in which all participated. At midnight supper was served in the upper dining room which would have satisfied a frequenter of Delmonico's in every particular. The night will linger in our memory as being one of the affairs of the season.

New Machine Will be Introduced in the South at Once.

A new enterprise that will add to the prosperity of Janesville is now being planned by A. C. Kent. The second patent on his new rotary lawn mower has just been received from Washington, and the first sample was received yesterday from the Taylor & Morris machine shop. Mr. Kent will introduce it in the south first and if it is a success it will be manufactured in a large scale in the Bower City the coming spring.

They Liked Pat Kelly.

Belvidere liked Pat Kelly's Comedy Co. and the Republican in the course of a half column story said: "Pat Kelly, as Alderman O'Donovan, made the greatest kind of a hit. His make-up was ridiculously funny and his acting even more so. He came near causing several people to choke to death with laughter."

STEAM ROLLER BOOMS THE CITY

Many Officers From Other Places Come Here to See It.

Janesville will be visited by many officials from towns in the state, as well as Illinois and Iowa who will be here for the purpose of inspecting the steam roller. Agent McConnell of the Pitts Agricultural Works, who is now in the city, says that officials from Watertown, Waukesha, Manitowoc, Appleton and Sheboygan and Madison have assured him that they will be here to witness the workings of the roller and in all probability the local officials will make an effort to show their distinguished guests the beauties and the many advantages of the Bower City.

"A great many people will no doubt want to know why they are all coming here" remarked Mr. McConnell, "but this is the only roller of its kind in this part of the state, the nearest one being at Marquette, Mich., so it is handier to show it here."

JOHN ENNIS CHARGES BRIBERY

Says the Chief of Police at Superior Took Money From Him

The fight between John F. Ennis and Chief of Police Lutton of Superior is growing hotter. A dispatch from that city says: "John Ennis, the proprietor of the gambling house which was raided by the police Tuesday night, has made affidavits that Chief of Police Lutton accepted $50 from him for protection. He also alleges that he was to have paid Lutton $50 more at the end of the month, making $100, the same as the rest are said to be paying. Lutton denies the charge and there may be another investigation."

Cheap Prices But Not Cheap Clothing.

R. M. Bostwick, the South Main street clothier, has a large advertisement in this evening's paper. His space hereafter will contain many interesting clothing announcements. He has never allowed any like dealer to undersell him on high grade clothing, and his long business career is enough of a guarantee as to the quality of goods he carries. From now until the first of next January winter goods are to be sold at a very close margin; in fact, they are to be put out at lower prices than ever before in the history of his store. Watch his space.

EMINENT TESTIMONY

Regarding the New Discovery for Curing Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

Dr. Hartzman, who has made many tests of the new dyspepsia cure, is very enthusiastic in his praise of this excellent preparation. It is not a secret patent medicine, but is composed of pure pepsin, bismuth, fruit salts and vegetable essences, made into pleasant tasting tablets or lozenges and sold by druggists at 50 cents per package, under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Dr. Hartzman states that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure dyspepsia and weak stomachs, because they possess the peculiar power of digesting whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach. They do not act on the bowels like cathartics, but act entirely on the food, digesting it thoroughly and quickly, giving the stomach a chance to rest and recover its natural strength, which it invariably will do after a course of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. If your druggist hasn't them in stock ask him to order a small quantity from his wholesaler.

WE have fully decided on a vigorous campaign to reduce our stock of Winter Garments.

PROFITS will be ignored—one object—to reduce our stock.

WE have enjoyed an exceptionally large business in our Cloak department.

OUR styles seem to have hit the public fancy as never before.

SATISFIED with our largely increasing Cloak trade over any former season, for the balance of the year all garments will be sold at figures that will command the attention of people needing Cloaks.

THIS is no idle talk, no chaff just to gain your attention, to get you to the store and then ask old prices, but we will carry out our intentions, our purpose as outlined above and give you better Cloaks for the money than you can find anywhere else.

IT is well known that we show the largest line of stylish reliable, trustworthy, satisfaction-giving Cloaks; such as you can buy with perfect confidence.

NOT gathered from all corners of the earth so to speak, from any house that offers them, regardless of how they are made or the quality of the material, but bought from the best manufacturers in the United States, who value their reputation as we do ours.

WE would not be guilty of selling the class of garments that are shown in some Janesville stores today; made merely for show, but when it comes to wear, think of the disappointed people and how they have been taken in.

BUY a reliable garment.

DON'T try to get one too low, for it is poor economy.

TRY—

THE BIG STORE.

I DON'T

mean to say that

The Gazette

A Beautiful Gift.

We have some Gas Banquet Lamps that are indeed as nice a thing to be used as gifts as can well be selected. You needn't give them away either. If you want a lamp that gives lots of light and is not continually in need of oil. The Welsbach Burner is used on them; and we can give you any color shade and silk tube to match. They are not so expensive either.

HOSPITAL TAKES IN $12,000 A YEAR

Mrs. B. B. Eldredge has received from her niece, Mary H. Williams, president of the Board of control of the North Adams (Mass.) hospital, a report showing how a hospital in a city of 13,000 people may be a success. Public contributions to the hospital are made twice a year, hospital envelopes being opened in the spring, and the offering in the city churches being devoted to the hospital one Sunday every fall. Patients last year paid $5,655, the charity ball netted $855, services of nurses outside $1,325 and the envelope canvass $2,005.24. Church collections and other means of revenue increased the receipts to $12,128. Three bequests aggregating $18,000, and $579 interest, added to this made the year's receipts $39,825.

The expenses for the hospital and the training school for nurses were $10,869. Of this $1,296 went for salary for superintendent and assistants, $1,271 for pupil nurses and $1,217 for help.

With the Regularity of Shuttle, and nearly as swift the trains of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Ry. make their trips between Chicago and New York, weaving closer and closer day by day the many mutual interests of these great commercial centers of the United States. Departing from the VanBuren street station, located in the heart of the business district of Chicago and arriving in New York at the Grand Central station, 42nd street, the popularity of this line in point of time and convenience is readily understood. It seems almost superfluous to add that for this service the equipment embodies all that is new and modern in the art of car building, apparently nothing that would give one a feeling of safety, comfort and luxury, has been overlooked. The schedule provides morning, afternoon and evening trains. Latest time table with any information desired will be promptly furnished on application. J. R. Hurley, T. P. A., 95 Wisconsin street, Milwaukee, Wis.; C. K. Wilber, Western Passenger Agent, Chicago.

JUNNIS HENRI BROWNE has written an illustrated article on the history of Thanksgiving day, which will be a feature of The Gazette's Thanksgiving Day issue.

Importance of Healthy Blood.
Every drop of blood that circulates through the veins eventually becomes a solid particle of the body. Flesh, bone and muscle are merely solidified blood, and upon the quality of the blood depends the condition of the whole physical system. Unless the liquid material by which the human substance is renewed and sustained is pure and nutritious, it is impossible that the body can be healthy and strong. One of the most important properties of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is that of improving the condition of the vital fluid, when infected or impoverished. Acting directly and powerfully on the stomach, in which the manufacture of the blood is commenced, and upon the liver which secretes a fluid next in importance to the stream of life itself, this powerful vegetable tonic and purgative has an immense indirect influence upon the circulation. Hence the extraordinary cures wrought by the Pills in cases of general debility, malarious fevers, rheumatism, biliousness, constipation, etc.

THE WORK OF THE LOCAL POETS.

A Wee Intruder.
I had just left my chair in the sanctum,
At the close of a day's mental strain,
And I sought for relief with my family
From the scramble for greed and for gain.
My wife with a kiss came to greet me
With her sweet little motherly smile,
And baby, too, ran out to meet me,
Calling "Papa, tum take me" the while.

I played with the wee one some moments
And would have gladly have stayed with her there
But I thought of some unfinished labors
And opened the door to the stair.
With a sob baby begged me to take her,
But I pushed her back into the room
And her heart-broken cry will be with me
I fear, 'till the day of my doom.

I passed up the stair through the hallway
And locking myself in my den
I picked up a few sheets of paper
And took a firm hold of my pen.
My ponderous thoughts lay before me
Like a wide open book in full view,
When a wee little voice from the stairway
Called "Papa, tum take me, please do."

The voice was so pleadingly longing,
Like a wailing cry choked with a sob,
That naught but a stone could withstand it,
So I hastily turned back the knob,
And in walked my own little darling
With the light hair and dark pleading eyes,
Brimming with tears as she asked me,
"Does oo like 'tittle durries' at eries?"

I clasped the wee form to my bosom
And kissed all the tear drops away;
On the tremulous lips of my darling
I saw a bright smile start to play,
And I thought: Would our heavenly Father,
When we come to our dying day,
Refuse our request to be taken,
And as heedlessly push us away?

What a Man Got On a Bargain Count.

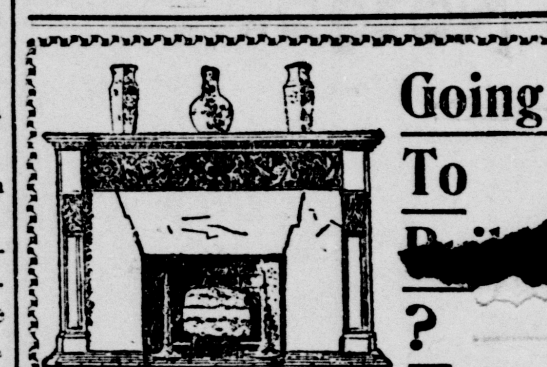

What good is a suit of clothes to any man if the price is real cheap and the coat is size 38, the vest 36 and the pants 46 waist unless he has brothers to give the odd pieces too? He has paid a good price for the one garment that fits him. It pays to buy a suit that goes together if it does cost a trifle more. Frank H. Baack.

The Water Tree.

M. Ducharte recently made known to the French Academy of Sciences the results of an experiment made by M. Maxime Lecomte in Congo upon a tree of the genus Musanga. Upon making incisions in the trunk of it and placing a pail at the foot of the tree, more than ten quarts of pure water collected in thirteen hours. The gorillas, it seems, are in the habit of slacking their thirst at these hidden fountains, and regulate the flow of liquid at will by pulling off different sized branches. Many years ago Dr. Wallich found in the province of Martaban, Africa, a plant belonging to the same natural order, whose soft and porous wood discharged, when wounded, a very large quantity of pure and tasteless fluid, which was quite wholesome, and was used as a beverage by the natives. This plant was named by Dr. Wallich the water vine, and was placed in the genus Phytocrene, which signifies "plant fountain." These plants form a remarkable exception to the usual character of the order, which embraces species that produce a milky juice—such, for example, as the celebrated cow tree, or Palo de Vaca of South America, which yields a copious supply of a rich and wholesome milk, as good as that of the cow, and used for the same purpose.

Success of the Electric Motor.

Thousands of electric motors are in daily use, displacing steam and gas engines and other forms of power motors. The secret of the electric motor's success everywhere lies in the fact that, for reliability, simplicity and certainty of operation, it has no peer in the motor field. It is compact, easily cared for, unfailingly sure, and, with a continuous rotary motion, it can be applied to its work with a minimum of expense and complication. The sole question of its preferential use by industrial power-consumers is that of its cost, including the cost of operating and maintaining the motor. The last five years have brought the answer to this question to an extent not generally realized. In New York it is estimated that not less than 8,000 horse-power in electric motors is at present in use, and about 400 horse-power in Brooklyn, with not less than 5,000 additional horse-power in motors for the electric traction system in Brooklyn.

Twins Celebrate Their 90th Birthday.

In the charming old Cape Cod town of Barnstable reside twin sisters who celebrated their 90th birthday last week. Possibly older twins may be found, but if so it is very doubtful if any can equal these ladies in vigor of mind and body. They are Mrs. Mehitabel Smith and Mrs. Deborah P. Hall, and they were born in Barnstable August 30, 1805. Their maiden name was Parker. They have been widows for many years and have long resided in the house in which lived Governor Thomas Hinkley, governor of Plymouth colony in 1680.

The Chinese Strawberry Bird.

Dr. Eva Harding of Topeka, Kan., is the proud owner of a little Chinese strawberry bird, so called because of the resemblance of its plumage to a strawberry. The bird is very small, and sings a little piping tune. Its bill and breast feathers are blood red, and the entire plumage is flecked with tiny white spots, like the seeds of a strawberry. Dr. Harding says it is the only bird of its kind in town.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

IT COMES TOO LATE.

John Roach, who was sent to his grave bankrupt and broken hearted by President Cleveland and Secretary Whitney, has been vindicated, but it comes too late. As everybody knows, the Dolphin, built by Mr. Roach, was condemned for "structural weakness" by a commission of the old ship-builders' business enemies appointed by Whitney. Mr. Roach was discredited and killed yet the government was forced to accept the Dolphin and the other three Roach vessels—the Chicago, the Boston and the Atlanta—and they are today, after ten years' service, among the most staunch and reliable vessels in the United States navy. The Dolphin has obstinately refused to exhibit the slightest trace of the "structural weakness" which Whitney's naval doctors found in their diagnosis, while the Boston, Chicago and Atlanta, after having seen more service than any other vessels in the navy, have proved to be absolutely satisfactory.

How different with the Texas, built on plans imported from England by a British-toadying administration. The "structural weakness" which Whitney tried to find in the Dolphin permeates the Texas from stern to stem and laps over on both sides of it and the clumsy and top-heavy bulk creaked and groaned as her frames buckled under her own weight in the Brooklyn dry dock. If she can be floated again she will ever remain a disgrace to the navy and a monument of the malignant stupidity which did its best to wreck American ship building ten years ago and is today just as anxious as it was then to minister to the ship yards on the Clyde.

While the poor old Texas is settling under her own weight in a cradle carefully built for her in the Brooklyn navy yard the Dolphin, the Chicago, the Boston and the Atlanta are weathering the hardest of service and convicting the Cleveland administration of hurrying an honorable man to a pauper's grave.

BOND SALE SOON.

There is likely to be another bond sale in two or three weeks. It will be additional evidence of the powerlessness of the Wilson tariff to furnish revenue, but there is an abundance of such evidence already, and nobody has any excuse for doubt. It is gratifying, however, that the gold reserve is not to be allowed to drop as low as it did last winter before a sale is made. At the end of December, 1894, the net gold in the treasury was $86,000,000, to which point it had dropped from $160,000,000 in twenty days, and its course was still downward. On Jan. 10, 1895, the reserve was $81,000,000, and on January 19 it was down to $71,000,000. Loud calls were made to the treasury officials by the press of the country early in the month to sell bonds, but this action was neglected until February, the gold in the meantime going down, touching $41,000,000 on February 9. With the reserve at this point the country was at the mercy of money-lenders. Mr. Cleveland's delay cost the tax payers $4,000,000. It is well it is not to be repeated.

Our humanity makes us hope that there will be no European war, but if there is war we will get lots of consolation out of the money we will make. Like the darkey coon hunter, "we ketch 'em gwine and we ketch 'em kummin'."

A store-keeper died in Boston the other day worth $3,000,000. He began life as a cash boy at $2 a week, and his life suggests that it is not the nabob, but the American small boy, with American opportunities, that socialists ought to wage war against.

John Sherman hasn't spared anybody in his book, but he stirred up a hornet's nest when he said the republicans dared not trust President Harrison with a free silver bill.

Perhaps it ought not to be said in a republican paper, but it is none the less true that Grover Cleveland did more than any one man toward breaking up the solid south.

The large increase in immigration during the past six months is worthy of congressional attention. It is a subject that needs legislation, but not hasty legislation.

Joe Blackburn says it was the newspapers, and for once Joe is more than half right.

BADGER SUIT BEGUN IN CIRCUIT COURT

DAMAGE CASE IS NOW BEING HEARD BY JUDGE BENNETT.

Jury Viewed the Scene This Morning, and the Taking of Testimony. Betony Began This Afternoon—The Claims Made by Both Sides—Other Court Proceedings.

The suit of City Clerk Arthur E. Badger against the Janesville Cotton Mills company is now on trial before the circuit court and will probably last all day tomorrow. Badger sues to recover damages for injuries received, he having lost his left arm by an accident while in the company's employ. The accident happened while Badger was fixing a belt on one of the looms. The plaintiff claims that he was required to do such work, and that the company furnished him with a defective ladder with which to reach the shafting. This ladder broke while he was using it, with the result that his hand was caught by the belt and the injuries inflicted. He claimed that when the company furnished the defective ladder they became responsible for any accident that might occur from the use thereof.

The Company's Claim.

The defendants claim that Badger was hired as an expert to look after certain looms, etc., and that it was his duty to see that the appliances in his department were in good condition. He should know, they insist, if anything that came under his care was defective, and should have notified the company of that fact. Therefore they hold that they are not responsible as it was the defendant's business to see that things were all right, and that being an expert, he must have known the danger of attempting to fix the belt while the shaft was in motion.

The opening arguments were made this morning by Fethers, Jeffris & Fife for the plaintiff, and Sutherland & Nolan for the defendants. The jury were taken to the mill to see the scene of the accident this morning, and the taking of testimony began this afternoon.

Names of the Jurymen.

The case was taken up at the conclusion of the Burton-VanValen action yesterday afternoon. The jury consists of O. L. DeForest, H. T. Burrows, Will Cleland, S. S. Strand, John Murray, W. H. Blair, Ira M. Buell, Edgar Smith, A. V. Peter, Norman Gleason, Dell Townsend and J. F. Root.

The case of J. E. Burton against De Motte Van Valen was finished yesterday afternoon, the jury coming in about 5 o'clock and rendering a verdict for $354.55 in favor of the plaintiff.

In the case of Robert I. Dowd against the City of Beloit and Beloit Water Works Company, a change of venue was taken to Walworth county.

The cases of Andrew W. Allison against the Western Assurance Company, Allison and others against the Hamburg Bremen Fire Insurance Company and the British American Assurance Company were set for November 25.

MRS. BERGER DEAD IN HER ARM CHAIR

MILKMAN FINDS HER LIFELESS AT 10 O'CLOCK.

Less Than Half an Hour Before That Time People in the Same House Had Heard Her Talking—Heart Failure Was the Fatal Ailment—Other Deaths.

Mrs. John Berger of Glen street, was found dead in her sitting room at 10:15 o'clock this morning.

A milkman made the discovery. Looking through the glass door as he made his rounds he saw her in an arm chair, but in an unnatural position. Something was wrong, he felt certain, and hurried to Millard Ide's, next door, to tell Mrs. Ide.

But a moment was needed to show that Mrs. Berger was dead. She had not been dead long for the people in the other half of the house heard her talking to her dog less than an hour before.

Dr. Dudley was at once called and made an examination as to the cause of death.

His decision was that her death was the result of heart failure, she having been a sufferer with a heart difficulty for the past five years. The funeral will be held from the house at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Johnnie Egan.

This morning at 2 o'clock, the angel of death visited the residence of Mrs. Susan Egan, 106 Park street, taking her only child—Johnnie—a bright boy aged twelve years and ten months.

Nine weeks ago he was taken sick with peritonitis. For a time he seemed better, but later suffered a relapse, and has gradually grown weaker, finally passing away in his mother's arms.

His bereaved mother has the sympathy of many friends in her deep affliction. The funeral will be held from St. Patrick's church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Maria Hinckley.

Mrs. Maria Hinckley, seventy-eight years of age, died at the home of her son, C. B. Hinckley, near the school for the blind at 6:30 o'clock this morning. The cause of death was dropsy, she having been sick about four weeks. Her husband and three sons survive—Charles E. Jared and Simeon F. Funeral services will be held at the home of C. B. Hinckley 2:30 p. m. next Sunday.

OLD COOPER SHOP HAS BEEN RAZED

ANOTHER HISTORIC LANDMARK IS NO MORE.

Built When They Had To Haul the Lumber From Milwaukee by Team, by Thomas Kirk—Land May Be Put on the Market as a Factory Site.

Another of the city's historic old buildings was torn down this week, it being the old "Thomas Kirk cooper shop," situated on the river bank, at the foot of School street. This building was one of three that was erected in 1860 and was one of the first manufacturing industries of the Bower City. The lumber was all brought to this city at great expense, having been hauled overland from Milwaukee. The two buildings that now stand on River street were erected in the year 1852, and at that time they were considered a great industry for this city. Fifty men were given employment, the cooper business being in a flourishing condition in those days. Many an old settler can remember today how farmers drove in for miles to get their flour, butter and pork barrels from the "Kirk cooper shops." If plans that are now being made are carried out, the other buildings that remain will be torn down in the spring, and the land put on the market for manufacturing purposes.

The legislative member turned red in the face and shook his fist violently under the lobbyist's nose.

"What!" he thundered in a gust of indignation, "you come to me—and seek to buy my vote for your infamous measure for $1,000? I've a notion to knock your head off and then publicly denounce you from the floor of the house!"

The lobbyist shook the ashes from his cigar.

SIZE DOES NOT ALWAYS INDICATE VALUE.

Relative values are not always shown by size. A truck load of barrels makes more show than a diamond with a million times its value. Same way with a cask of ale and JOHANN HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT. Huge, cumbersome and impressive to the eye, but not equal to JOHANN HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT in nutritive value.

One dozen bottles of JOHANN HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT will give more strength and nourishment than a whole cask of ale. Taken with meals, cures dyspepsia, insomnia and nervousness.

Leaping Whales.
"Speaking of jumping," said an old seaman who had been watching some boys playing leapfrog on the sands, "let me tell you of the greatest jump ever seen. It was many years ago, when I was little more than a lad, but I was bow oarsman on a whale boat belonging to the ship Henry Staples. We had bad luck for several weeks, when one day we sighted a big whale, and two boats set off in a race to see who would get there first. It was fairly smooth, what the sailors call a white cap breeze, and our boats fairly flew over the water. Finally the whale rose not one hundred yards away, heading directly for us. The harpooner stood with his iron all ready to throw, while we grasped our oars nervously, prepared to jump at the word 'stern all,' that nearly always came when a whale was harpooned. Not a word was spoken, and suddenly a mountain of black appeared; it seemed to shut off the entire horizon. Up it went until I distinctly saw a seventy foot whale over twenty feet in the air hovering over us.

"The mate was the first to regain his senses, and gave the command 'stern all.' Just as we were ready to spring overboard the boat shot back several feet, and the next second the gigantic animal dived into the ocean, just grazing us, having completely passed over the boat in the biggest leap I ever heard of."

Such gigantic leaps are rare. A similar one was recorded by Dr. Hall, who at the time was a midshipman on the ship Leander. They were lying in the harbor of Bermuda, when all hands were attracted by the appearance of a very large whale that suddenly appeared in the harbor and seemed very much alarmed by the shallow water, floundering about violently. The young midshipman joined a boat's crew that started in pursuit, and just as they were about to strike the whale disappeared, sinking out of sight, leaving a deep whirlpool, around which the boat shot. Before it stopped up came the whale, having in all probability struck the bottom, and went into the air like a rocket. "So complete was this enormous leap," says Dr. Hall, "that for an instant we saw him fairly up in the air, in a horizontal position, at a distance of at least twenty perpendicular feet over our heads. While in his progress upward there was in his spring some touch of the vivacity with which a trout or salmon shoots out of the water, but he fell back again in the sea like a huge log thrown on its broadside, and with such a thundering crash as made all hands stare with astonishment, and the boldest held his breath for a time. Had the whale taken his leap one minute sooner he would have fallen plump on the boat."

Swinburne as Poet Laureate.
The rumor is revived that Swinburne is to be made Poet Laureate. That would be a grand thing to do, especially after his writing the magnificent verses on Cromwell reproduced recently in an editorial column of this journal. No act would win for Lord Salisbury the regard of English Nonconformity as that, and it would attest an attribute of greatness which not all have conceded to the present Premier.

'MY FOOD DOES ME NO GOOD.'

In any city there are many possible ways to travel from one point to another. But between the food on your table and its destination in the body there is only one road,—directly through the stomach. There is no going around the stomach or forcing a passage through it. Here the food is detained a while for better or for worse. Here it must be digested,—that is to say, changed, liquefied and assimilated; or, failing that, it must lie here and rot, generating poisonous principles which enter the blood and set up a diseased action throughout the system. This is indigestion or dyspepsia,—the condition that exists when a person says: "My food does me no good."

Certainly not. How can it? The more he eats the more he suffers. The road is blocked. No use putting more grain in the hopper when the mill cannot grind. Here are some of Nature's protests; loss of appetite; distress after eating; heartburn; palpitation; flashes of heat and cold; the rising of nauseous acids and gases into the throat; furred tongue; dull and aching head; pains in the chest and back; weariness, fatigue and worry; loss of sleep; cold hands and feet; yellowish eyes and skin; weakness and trembling; constipation; failure of nervous force and courage, etc., etc. Out of this seething blockade in the stomach may come any of a dozen local complaints,—a common form of pseudo-consumption among them. Yet you must eat or starve. Miserable dilemma.

Drastic measures won't do. Take a very little light nourishment first and immediately after it a dose Shaker's Digestive Cordial, the only radically effective remedy for indigestion or dyspepsia,—prepared by the Shaker community of Mt. Lebanon, N. Y. It will relieve at once and cure quickly. Made from cultivated medicinal herbs and plants grown by the Shakers. Pleasant to the taste, painless and harmless.

Trial bottles ten cents. For sale by nearly all druggists.

Two New York Cloak houses

with Chicago offices where they displayed their entire sample lines being through with their season and not wanting to pay express charges on the garments to New York, offered them to us at a liberal discount and always on the lookout for snaps, we were right there and made the deal with both for the entire lines. These garments were made up to show to the best merchants in the west, and were made particularly well, not one but what is right in every way. They were never handled on the road, but have only been shown in Chicago and are therefore in better shape than would be the case with those made up now in the mid-season rush. They are in stock today and comprise many exclusive styles not seen heretofore in ladies' and misses' jackets, in boucles, cheviots, kerseys; also plush and cloth capes and fur garments.

Don't buy a cloak of any kind until you look here where we positively guarantee to save you one-third.
